The carrier's maximum liability in the event of loss or damage is limited to their determination of "fair value," which in no case can exceed a maximum of $461.00 USD or $1.00 USD/lb. for new goods, or in no case can exceed a maximum of $46.10 USD or $0.10 USD/lb. for used goods. Claims can be denied and the amount paid can be less than the value of the shipment based on, but not limited to, tariffs, common law exceptions, released value provisions, liability limitations, and carrier commodity restrictions. The Company may offer upon request a cargo coverage insurance policy for purchase by the Customer. For details please contact your account representative.

I acknowledge the carrier's maximum liability and possible reductions as stated above. I do not wish to purchase insurance.

I want to consider buying insurance.
